

Cigna International further strengthens its footprints in India

Ties up with Wockhardt Hospitals Group, a leading chain of Superspeciality hospitals in India

Cigna International a global health service company of over 125 years ties up with Wockhardt Hospital, one of the most advanced and state-of-the-art healthcare institutes in India, to reach out to more patients from around the globe.

The presence of a strong and committed team of medical professionals combined with the latest technologies comparable to international standards makes Wockhardt Hospital Groups a premium healthcare institute in India. In associating with Cigna International, one of the leading health service companies in US which also operates internationally in 29 countries, Wockhardt has increased its global presence in manifold.

Wockhardt currently provides healthcare services to several public and private enterprises; with this international alliance, Wockhardt Hospitals will extend its healthcare coverage to Cigna International's 66 million customer relationships from around the world. Cigna International has now also acquired, 'FirstAssist Insurance Services', a leading Travel and Protection Insurance Company in the UK with nearly 3 million policy holders in the UK, increasing its global customer base. Cigna International provides health care products and services, and international insurance not only to employers and organisations but also to individuals and their families. In addition to this, it also provides group disability, life, accident and specialty insurance and case management services for disability and worker's compensation.

"We are thrilled to join forces with Cigna International's medical insurance services, and are looking forward to further widen our finest services to patients worldwide", said Mr. Chinmay Gheewala (Asst. General Manager, Wockhardt Hospitals Group).

Wockhardt Hospitals Group's numerous super-specialty hospitals, their technologies of global standards and their most important objective of placing patient care above all, benefits all patients tremendously. This significant collaboration with Cigna International further enhances Wockhardt's high reputation as a preferred healthcare service provider for international patients.